Black History @ Murray

Black Business in Chicago

“Despite contemporary trends and the current climate, African Americans have a long history of entrepreneurship. Within two decades of abolition, African Americans established several thousand successful businesses that thrived in exclusively African American communities...Black business ownership remained stagnant for several decades before resurging again in the early 1980s, and while growth has been slow, black business ownership has continued its upward trajectory ever since.”

On Wednesday, February 10, 2021, Mr. Wallace Goode, business executive, will speak on how young people can become successful entrepreneurs.

Why is this so important?

- Entrepreneurship improves productivity
- Entrepreneurship spurs innovation
- Entrepreneurship creates jobs

Consider Moziah Bridges. “Moziah Bridges made his short appearance as a bright 12-year-old bow-tie maker on the reality TV show Shark Tank a few years ago. Now 15 years old, he recently signed a seven-figure contract to provide bow ties to the NBA, and his business, Mo’s Bows, is progressing.”
